INTRODUCTION

Insider trading means dealing in securities of a company listed on any recognised stock exchange in India, based on, or when in possession of, unpublished price sensitive information.

With a view to govern the conduct of insiders on matters relating to insider trading, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) had formulated Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992 (hereinafter referred to as the “Erstwhile Regulations”). Further, SEBI amended the erstwhile regulations and brought the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as “Regulations”). Furthermore, SEBI rationalised the Regulations by bringing the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2019 (including any subsequent amendments).

The Code is formulated pursuant to Regulation 9(1) and (2) of the Regulations read with Schedule B of the Regulations, as amended, from time to time, so as to ensure that at all times the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives (i) Trade in Securities of the Company only after any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information known to them, if any, has been made generally available; and (ii) adhere to certain discipline, such as not trading during the Prohibited Period and not trading in Derivatives and (iii) to generally take measures to prevent the occurrence of insider trading.

The revised Code has been adopted by the Board of Directors in its meeting held on . Compliance to the amendments will be applicable from the day when the Third Amendment Regulations become effective.
